

Programme outcome- Zoology

1. To understand and preserve the vast diversity of species on our planet.
2. To learn about our own ancestry.
3. To learn about our anatomy and function of our bodies which can help us combat diseases.
4. To protect endangered species and other species essential to the continuation of earth's life.
5. To deal with the study of mannerism, habitats, structure and classification of animals.
6. To understand the system of production of food item, eventually helping us to improve their number and quantity.
7. To gain necessary knowledge regarding number of myths (like snake bites, ferocious tigers, sharks).
8. Honey, silk, wax, lather, shells, wools etc are of commercial use derived from different animals.
9. To identify insects in crop destruction and growth in betterment of agricultural fields.
10. To provide students a lot of medical information's by dissection, study of bones, blood test, hormones and immunological studies.
11. To study genetics and modification to get information about our ancestors and evolution of animal to mankind.
12. To improve our race having progenies with perfect feature and characters at our will.