

Programme outcome- Political Science

1. A degree in politics prepares students for many forms of employment as well as further studies.
2. Students will be able to understand different ideologies of the political theory.
3. It is expected that student will understand and compare the world ideologies.
4. Field of political theory will be introduced to the students for developing the understanding of the politics theoretically.
5. International relations cover topics such as the role of international organization like UN. It addresses question such as why wars occur. How peace is negotiated and maintained and what is international justice.
6. Political science is fundamental to understanding your rights and responsibilities as a citizen.
7. Under graduate study of politics usually consist of courses on American Politics, comparative politics, international relations and political theory. These courses will introduce you to political concepts.
8. Student will understand the knowledge about politics and government.
9. Students will become aware of the crucial questions raised by classical and contemporary political philosopher and some of the solutions proposed by them to answer fundamental questions about the role of politics in human life.
10. Students will come to understand that there is various type of political system around the world and that these may differ from each other.
11. Imparting knowledge of the state, its origin nature, structure and functions.
12. The study of political science makes people conscious about their rights and duties.
13. The study of political science is valuable for creating good citizenship and securing unity of the nation.
14. Political science also teaches us the lesson of cooperation, adjustment to learn society cannot prosper without co-operation.